

Pathway to Impact CIRCLE

TOGETHER, for children, families and communities across Maricopa County

Valley of the Sun United Way's Pathway to Impact Circle is a philanthropic group of young, community-minded executive leaders and business owners who are passionate about making our community a better place.

Members have exclusive opportunities to connect with other professionals, their local communities and impactful nonprofit programs and services that support education, housing and homelessness, health and workforce development.

"When I first began volunteering with United Way, I made a personal decision to give my time and experience by providing financial education to individuals who served as financial coaches in local communities. With the launch of our Pathway to Impact Circle, I'm excited to help grow the next generation of philanthropists, while connecting and working with other young business leaders who are passionate about improving our community."
